

Your Psychic Pyramid

Cut out, assemble and manifest miracles in your life!

Our psychic Mitchell Coombes has created this pyramid to help you attain your heart's desires

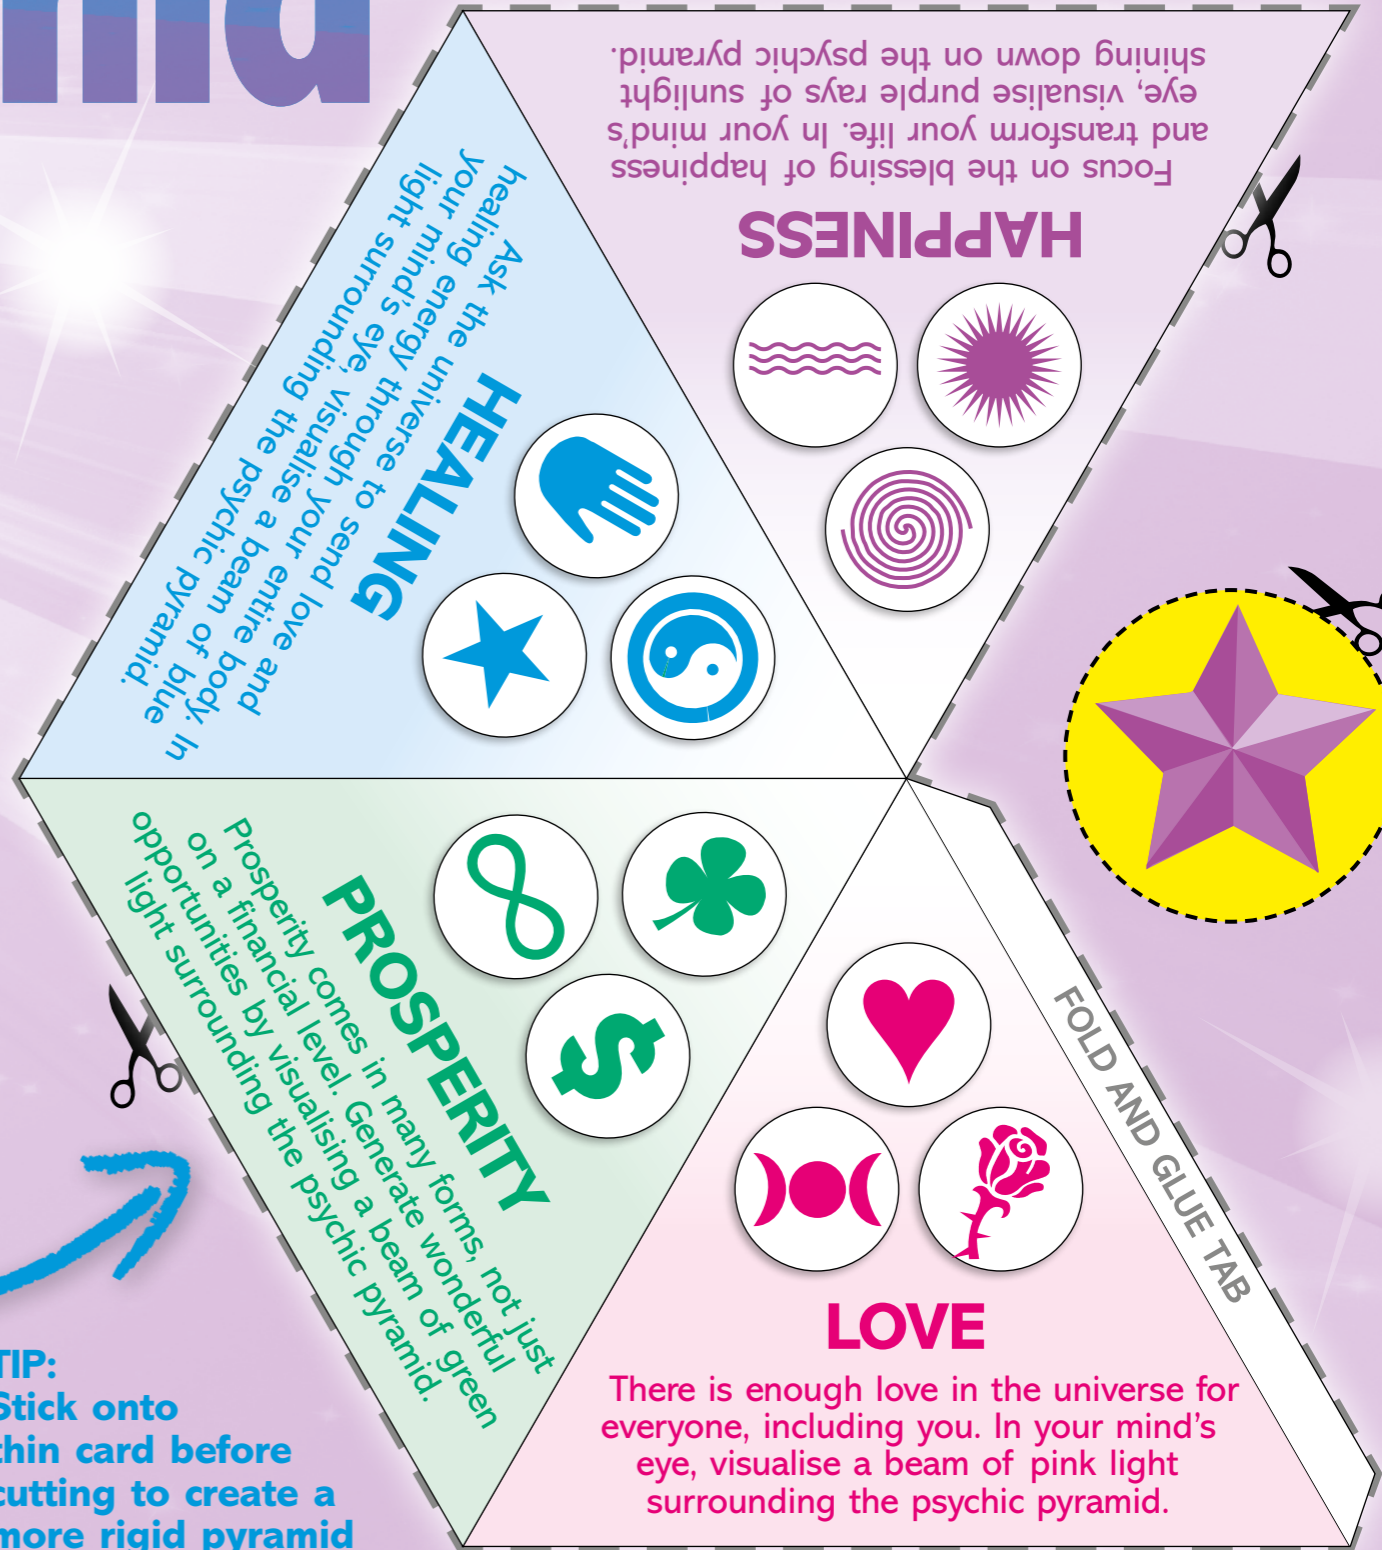

Since ancient times, the secret power of pyramids has helped many manifest miracles in their lives. Pyramid power cannot be underestimated. It can help attract love and increase prosperity, improve health and aid healing powers. Simply by placing names, photos, special objects or messages inside the pyramid, you can use its mystical forces to manifest extraordinary results. For best results, place the pyramid with the side that represents your wish facing you. When using pyramid power, concentrate and focus on your wish and be clear about what you'd like to happen. For some people, I have seen results occur almost immediately. For others, their wish may take a little time and require the right conditions before it can be granted. I recommend placing the purple wishing star talisman under the pyramid to help magnify your wish. To begin, simply assemble your pyramid as shown opposite. May blessings flow abundantly into your life. — Mitchell Coombes

Wish for love Light a pink candle and burn rose oil to create ambience. Write a list of the ideal qualities you want in your relationship and place it under the pyramid with items such as rose petals, something heart-shaped or a drawing of a heart, pictures of love and even a rose-quartz crystal. These help intensify the power of attraction. If you've met your love interest or are in a relationship that needs a little help, place his or her photo or an item belonging to him or her under the pyramid as well.

Wish for prosperity Under the pyramid, place items that represent prosperity and wealth, such as gold coins, paper money or pictures. Put lotto tickets under the pyramid for extra luck. Raw rice, on its own or with the other items, can also attract abundant opportunities into your life. If you wish for a holiday, place travel brochures of your dream destination under the pyramid. If you want to sell your car or house, take a photo, write your asking price and the word SOLD! on the back and place under the pyramid for a quick sale.

Wish for healing Place a photo of yourself or of the person you wish to send healing energy to under the pyramid to help them get well. There are a range of items you can also place there to boost these healing powers. These include a blue feather, green leaves from a small healthy plant, a small dish of salt, oils such as sandalwood or frankincense, or a healing crystal such as blue quartz.

Wish for happiness When you're going through a hard time or feeling stuck in life, place a picture of yourself under the pyramid along with items or pictures that symbolise things that would make you happy. These can include a picture of a baby if you wish to get pregnant, a picture of a tree if you require strength to get through a hard time, or an amethyst crystal or piece of bamboo to help you through a tricky situation.
