LEARN HOW TO MAKE ALL YOUR WISHES COME TRUE

Since ancient times, the secret power of pyramids has helped people from all walks of life manifest miracles.

Pyramid power can help you attract love, improve relationships, boost your finances, improve health and aid in personal and spiritual healing.

In the past I have seen amazing results occur for some people almost instantly. For others, their wish took a little longer and required the right universal conditions and divine timing before it could be granted.

I recommend placing any of my lucky gold stars under the pyramid to help magnify your wish but this is not essential. May blessings flow abundantly into your life!

HOW TO TAP INTO PYRAMID POWER

To get started, just assemble your pyramid as shown opposite (note tip).

For best results, place the pyramid with the side that represents your wish facing you. By placing special objects, photos, names or messages that correspond to your wish under the pyramid, you can use its mystical forces to bring about extraordinary results.

When using pyramid power, concentrate and focus only on your wish and be clear about what you'd like to happen - remember, only wishes that do not interfere with another person's free will and are for the highest good of all concerned will be granted.

Hold your hands over the pyramid and visualise a beam of coloured light that corresponds to your wish surrounding the pyramid (Love = pink light; Prosperity = green light; Healing = blue light; Happiness = purple light).

To wish for love Write a list of the qualities you would like in a relationship and place it under the pyramid with items such as rose petals, something heart-shaped or a drawing of a heart, pictures of love or a rose quartz crystal. These intensify the power of attraction.

If you've met your love interest or are in a relationship that needs a little help, place his or her photo or an item belonging to him or her under the pyramid as well.

To wish for prosperity Under the pyramid, place items that represent prosperity and wealth, such as gold coins, paper money or a citrine crystal. You can place lotto tickets under the pyramid for extra luck.

If you wish for a holiday, place travel brochures of your dream destination under the pyramid. After a quick sale on your car or house? Take a photo, write your asking price and "Sold" on the back and place it under the pyramid.

To wish for healing Place a photo of yourself or the person you wish to send healing energy to under the pyramid.

There are a range of items you can also place there to boost this universal healing energy. These include a blue feather, green leaves from a small healthy plant, a small dish of salt, oils such as sandalwood or frankincense or a healing crystal like blue quartz.

To wish for happiness When you're going through a hard time or feeling stuck in life, place a picture of yourself under the pyramid along with items or pictures that best symbolise happiness to you.

If you are trying to fall pregnant, you could include a picture of a newborn baby. If you require strength or a boost of energy, then use a picture of a tree.

understanding and forgiveness. She says it's important you know "you are not a bad mother" and she loves you very much.

Cut out along the dotted lines and fold on the solid lines to create your pyramid of power

Hot tip

Make your pyramid more sturdy by gluing the layout to a piece of cardboard before cutting and folding.
